Man Charged with Second Degree Murder

United States Attorney Steven M. Biskupic announced that last week a federal grand jury in the Eastern District of Wisconsin returned an indictment charging Marcelino Heredia, 32 from the Menominee Indian Reservation with Second Degree Murder.

The indictment alleges Herdia killed his brother-in-law Anthony Madosh after a party on the Menominee Indian Reservation on or about February 3, 2008.

The case has been assigned to Assistant United States Attorneys Tammy Hock and Timothy Funnell. The charge is a violation of Title 18 United States Code, Sections 1111 and 1153 and is punishable by up to life in prison.

It should be noted that an indictment is merely the formal method of charging an individual and does not constitute inference of his or her guilt. An individual is presumed innocent until such time, if ever, that the government establishes his or her guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
